

Girl Scout History Society

News from Cultural Assets

The next virtual meeting of the Girl Scout History Society will take place on April 15th, 2025, at 4pm EST.

The agenda and meeting link will be sent a few days before the meeting.

The April 15th meeting will focus on recruiting volunteers under 30 years old to council history committees. If you are a history volunteer under 30 years old, or know someone who is, and are interested in participating in a panel discussion, please contact Janine.

Meeting recordings and other resources are available HERE.

Dear Girl Scout History Society,

It's finally happening! Join us to celebrate the long-awaited Juliette Gordon Low quarter, the 17th in the American Women Quarters Program. We'll be partnering with our colleagues to host two special events.

March 26, 2025, 4:00-6:00pm – Smithsonian's National Postal Museum, 2 Massachusetts Ave., NE, Washington, DC

Bring the whole family to the National Postal Museum to celebrate the release of the new Juliette Gordon Low quarter with presentations and activities alongside the Smithsonian American Women's History Museum, Girls Scouts of the USA, and the U.S. Mint!

Part of the American Women Quarters™ Program, which celebrates the accomplishments and contributions made by women of the United States, the quarter honors Juliette Gordon Low as the founder of Girl Scouts of the USA.

Registration is not required but is recommended.

April 5, 2025, 12:00-4:00pm – Juliette Gordon Low Birthplace, 10 East Oglethorpe Ave, Savannah, Georgia 31401

Join us for a free community day at the Juliette Gordon Low Birthplace in celebration of the Juliette Gordon Low quarter! This beautiful spring day will feature food, entertainment, and activities for the entire family. Don't forget to get your JGL quarter merch in our store while you're here.

Collection Highlight

A chilly day is the perfect time to enjoy a cup of hot cocoa and Girl Scout cookies! Juliette's chocolate set is on display at the Birthplace. It has gold banding and pink, orange, and purple floral bouquets. The shape of the pot is an elongated pear with a pitcher style spout and flourished rounded handle. The lid has a rose finial that matches the one found on the sugar bowl. OBJ.001956.10.6.1.a

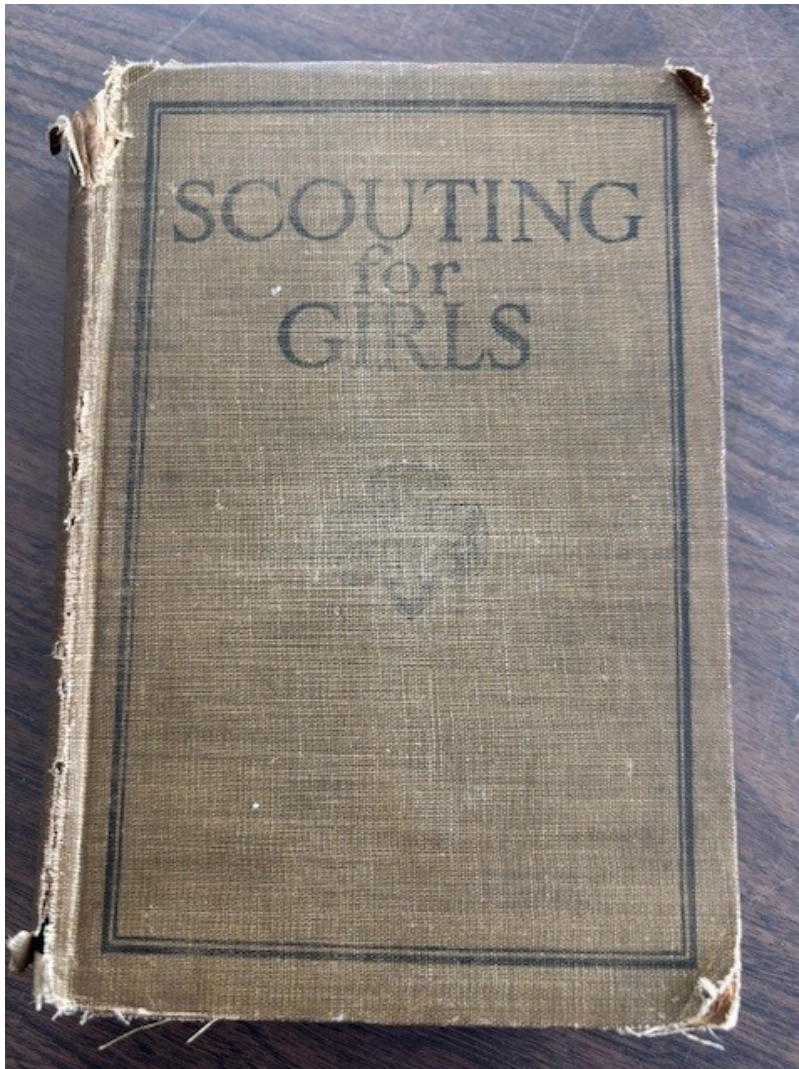

News from Members

Girl Scouts of Greater LA's Heritage Committee will be collecting contemporary Girl Scout Uniforms to give to girls and Leaders who have lost theirs in the recent wildfires in California. There are also running a "Games and Books that can fit in Mom's Purse" campaign. Things like a deck of cards, tangrams, paperback books, etc. Anything can be delivered or mailed to GSGLA, c/o Patti Brundige, 4827 Pennsylvania Avenue, La Crescenta, CA 91214-1944. You can also email us at GSGLA.Heritage@gmail.com Click HERE for resources from GSGLA about the fires.

Do you recognize the badge below? It could be an "M" or a "W." We suspect it was a council patch from around 1955-1960. Please contact Natasha Patchen if you do!

GA Heart of NJ has an extra copy of the 1925 edition handbook (missing pages 279-294) and various GS mugs. Please contact Dolores Kresge if you are interested.

Do you have a new exhibit opening? Have extra artifacts to donate to another council? Send your news to Janine Napierkowski for inclusion in the next newsletter. Please limit entries to 100 words or less.
