Council Visits

Last week Shannon, Janine, and Alison were thrilled to be able to visit three council history committees in the New England area to see their museums and learn about their programs. We enjoyed our tours and discussions (and the homemade baked goods) immensely! We will share some of the best practices we learned during our visits in next month's newsletter.

Collection Highlight

September is back-to-school (and Troop) season which means fresh school supplies and clean desks! Pictured above is Juliette's secretary desk and inkwell which are both located in the library at the Birthplace. Juliette wrote many letters and kept a journal, so we imagine she used this desk often.
